SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY BAND IS BLACK HISTORY MONTH HIGHLIGHT AT OLD STATE CAPITOL

The acclaimed marching band of Southern University will be spotlighted throughout the month of February at the Old State Capitol in recognition of Black History Month. Prior to every scheduled tour (and upon request), a fifteen minute special report, produced by ABC NEWS NIGHTLINE, will be shown in the House Chamber. The piece is called "The Human Jukebox" and showcases the Southern University marching band under the direction of their legendary Music Department Director, Issac Greggs, Ph.D.

Dr. Greggs is a native of Shreveport, Louisiana. He is an administrator, clinician, adjudicator, professional trumpet player, conductor, and entrepreneur.

Admission to the Old State Capitol is $4 for adults, $3 for seniors and veterans and $1 for groups of twenty or more.

The Old State Capitol is open Tuesday through Saturday from 10:00am until 4:00pm and on Sunday from Noon until 4pm. The building is open on Monday for pre-scheduled tours only.

The Old State Capitol is the Center for Political and Governmental History and is located at 100 North Boulevard at River Road, Baton Rouge, Louisiana. For more information, call 1-800-488-2968 or 225-342-0500.
